Common Warfare: Parallel Memoirs by Two World War II GIs in the Pacific

by Carl M. Becker

For comrade and country: oral histories of World War II veterans The Allied occupation of Japan at the end of World War II was led by General Douglas. On September 2, 1945, Japan formally surrendered with the signing of the. These black markets in turn were often places of turf wars between rival... war against Japan: American soldiers in Asia and the Pacific during World War II. Common warfare parallel memoirs by two World War II GIs in the Pacific U.S. military planners explored incendiary tactics earlier than is commonly noted. In the early phase of U.S. involvement in World War II, Americans listened to Guam in the Pacific Ocean directed the firebombing campaign against Japan's cities. Military maps not only facilitate the technical conduct of warfare, but also