Van Gogh: Southbound
by Gilles Martin-Raget

Castles on the Rhine: Family Riverboat Adventure - Southbound. Vincent Willem van Gogh was a Dutch Post-Impressionist painter who is among the most famous and influential figures in the history of Western art. In just over a decade, van Gogh's unique and vibrant style captured the essence of his surroundings and the people he encountered. His works, such as "Letters to Theo," "Self-Portrait with Bandaged Ear," and "The Starry Night," are celebrated for their vivid color and dynamic composition. Van Gogh's life was marked by mental illness, which led to his suicide in 1889, but his art continues to inspire and(or) move people today.
